Gen. Shafter thinks old glory will wave over Santiago by Thursday.

The Brooklyn, Texas and Indiana began to bombard Santiago Sunday afternoon. It could not be learned at Washington yesterday afternoon whether the bombardment was continued yesterday or not.

Col. W. J. Bryan's regiment was yesterday ordered to join Gen. Fitzhugh Lee's corps at Jacksonville, Fla.

Gen. Toral's conditional surrender has been refused by McKinley.

Dispatches on page two tell of the bombardment of Santiago, the arrival at Portsmouth, N. H., of Admiral Cervera and other Spanish prisoners, and other war news.

Admiral Camara is hustling home-ward with his fleet.

The U. S. soldiers at Manila have been provided with all the new equipments for fighting the Spaniards. Two thousand cutters were shipped to Tampa on Friday to use in subsequent operations, and more will follow. Over in the Philippines the Spanish also have corralled their fences with barbed wire, and so we have sent to our army in the far-off South Seas cutters. We, too, have sent barbed wire there to enable our forces to hold against the Spanish whatever places they will take.

The Confederates of Lexington have a scheme on foot in connection with the proposed return of the Confederate battle flags. It is proposed to make the event notable by having some of the great orators of the North and South join in the speech making, and the day of the return of flags to celebrate the event with a big Kentucky burgoon.

The beautiful, rock-walled island of Mackinac is indeed an attractive and restful place to the summer tourist. To those who have eyes for the beautiful in Nature it offers scenic panoramas that are sublime; to those who seek health and rest, its pure atmosphere brings relief from hay fever, gives one a wonderful appetite, and the cool breezes from the lake enable the visitor to enjoy the sleep of the innocent; those on pleasure bent find amusement in riding and driving over the island, in dancing at the Casino, in tennis, bowling, fishing, etc. The most noted view on the island is the famous "Arch Rock," which reminds Kentuckians of our Natural Bridge, on the K. U. road. "Sugar Loaf Rock" is a queer formation which towers skyward probably sixty feet, and "Devil's Kitchen" is a water-beaten place in a huge boulder which is probably kept blackened by smoke for obvious reasons. Mackinac was first known as a trading post by the Indians and French. In 1763, the island was christened with English blood, the French having incited the Indians to massacre twenty English soldiers. Fort Mackinac, which is now an object of interest on the island, was built by the British in 1783, and was first occupied by U. S. soldiers in 1796. It was taken by the British in 1812, who also built Ft. Holmes on the highest point on the island. An observation tower on Ft. Holmes, 336 feet above the lake, gives the tourist a magnificent view of the island panorama. Other points of interest on the island are "Skull Cave," "Wishing Spring," "Point Lookout," "Robinson's Folly," "Chimney Rock," "Cupid's Pathway" and "Lovers Leap." No well regulated resort is complete without a "Lovers Leap." Most of the places are reached by a good climb up the hills—for almost everything, including hotel bills, horse and bicycle, livery, bicycle skirts, bathing suits, souvenirs, etc., is high at Mackinac. At many places on the island one meets Indians, but they are so Americanized that the casual observer does not detect their nationality. There is an Indian village on the island, but the children of the forest have forsaken the wigwam and now live in frame houses.

At Detroit Thursday morning the K. P. A. crowd became divided, part returning home and part going for side trips to various places. Twenty-seven, including Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bosley, of Paris, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keller, of Carlisle, editor Wyatt and party, of Ewing, Miss Pearl Trigg and Miss Atha Hanks, of Glasgow, and others, went to Niagara Falls. The writer crossed Lake Erie on the splendid D. & C. steamer City of Cleveland with the party, and stopped over in Cleveland, having visited the Falls several years ago. A trolley ride gave a fine view of the old Rockefeller mansion on Prospect avenue, and the partial homes on beautiful Euclid avenue of Mark Hanna, and other wealthy citizens who are less famous and less abused. The Garfield monument is a leading point of interest in Cleveland. It is located on the highest ground in Lakeview cemetery and rises to a height of 180 feet. The monument is a splendid work of art and cost $200,000. In the base of the structure rests the casket containing the remains of the martyred President. Almost at every turn in the winding stairs of the tomb the word "Silence"—painted on the wall—confronts the eye of the visitor. The interior, which is handsomely decorated with scenes done in mosaic, contains a fine statue of President Garfield. The visitor is charged an admission fee of ten cents to pay the salary of the custodian of the monument. The Soldiers and Sailors monument, located in the business center of the city, is another point of interest to the sight-seer, as are also the splendid arcades nearby. One of them is a three story affair, fitted with elevators, and containing fine shops of every kind. The new arcade, which is called "The Colonial," is nearing completion, and will also be a double story attraction for the visitors to the beautiful Forest City. The Cincinnati arcade seems cheap in comparison with those modern structures.

Believing that a visit to Mackinac without a fishing trip was like seeing Kentucky and missing the Bluegrass, I went fishing at the Les Cheneaux Islands, in company with editors M. F. Marsh, of the Maysville Bulletin, John A. Bell, of the Georgetown Times, W. E. Jenkins, of the Adairville Banner, and W. Q. Adams, of the Owensboro Inquirer. Mr. Marsh landed a muscalonge three feet long which weighed ten pounds—not weighed on its own scales—and Mr. Adams captured a pike two feet long. I firmly believe that Mr. Adams' bait was the slickest minnow that ever went down the pike. Messrs. Bell, Jenkins and myself caught over fifty smaller fish in less than two hours. Mr. Jenkins landing two fish at a time on four different occasions. The Indian guide assured us that the conditions were not favorable for fishing that day. For a depth of three feet the fisher could see the minnow and watch one to four fish darting at the bait, and they would follow the bait almost to the top of the water. The fishermen were guests of the Les Cheneaux Club, through the invitation of the genial secretary, J. T. Patton, of Detroit. The truth of the fish story is attested by the gentlemen mentioned.

The K. P. A. had quite a number of cities on its visiting list during the trip, stopping at Cincinnati, Toledo, Detroit, Walkerville (Canada), Alpena, Cheboygan, St. Ignace and Mackinac (Mich.). Cleveland, Put-In-Bay, Buffalo and Niagara. All of the short stop-overs were pleasant but the stay at Walkerville—where the Walkers entertained with a champagne-trimmed luncheon—is the most readily recalled, even if several did have a wee bit of a headache afterward. The unmarried editors thought some of the Michigan girls were pretty enough to be Kentuckians. But speaking of personal pulchritude, it was heard on all sides that the K. P. A. crowd this year was the best looking crowd that has ever journeyed from the Bluegrass State. There were about forty ladies in the party, and some of them fully sustained Kentucky's reputation for lovely girls. I could give names—but I expect to meet the other girls next year. W. C.

From Camp Thomas.

Camp Thomas,
Chickamauga, Ga.,
July 10th, 1898.

Yesterday was a regular house cleaning day in the camp of the Second Kentucky, every tent being struck, and every bit of trash swept up and carried away. The occasion for the cleaning up was the inspection which was held by Gen. Grant this morning at eight o'clock—the first he has held since the Second was placed in his command.

The action of Lieutenant Cook quelled a small riot yesterday evening. The cause of the trouble was the exorbitant prices charged by a sutler in the service of the Second Kentucky. The result was that the shack of the sutler was bombarded with rocks and it was about to be turned over when Lieutenant Cook and the guard interposed. The shop was considerably dented.

Col. Gaither has determined to prevent thieving in the camp. The other day a negro cook stole $30 from the knapsack of John Wilder, Major Owens' orderly. He was arrested, and when he confessed he was given a stripe on his bare shoulders for every dollar and was then ordered to leave the camp.

The members of Company I were glad to welcome Duncan Taylor and Sam Woodford, of Paris, to Camp Thomas, for a short stay last week. They came in Friday morning and remained until Sunday morning when they left for a trip to Lookout Mountain. They brought messages, letters and remembrances, etc., to a number of the boys, and were delighted with their stay at Camp Thomas.

The general health of Company I is very good indeed and most of the boys have gained from five to fifteen pounds in weight, and all are well contented. Many of them do not expect to be moved from Chickamauga, and they think that they will be at home by October. Lieutenant Neville Fisher and Sergeant Dorsey Ray have grown full beards and would hardly be recognized at first glance by their best friends.

Fred Link of Company I, who has been in the hospital at Fort Thomas, for several weeks, has returned to camp here, and is all right again.

The soldiers of the Second Kentucky received their money this week, and some of them are broke already. Some of them however have sent money home. They were paid off in crisp new silver certificates, fresh from the mint at Washington.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Cures a Prominent Attorney.

M. R. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a man of 30. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by nervous pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

What Shall Be Done

FOR THE DELICATE GIRL

You have tried iron and other tonics. But she keeps pale and thin. Her sallow complexion worries you. Perhaps she has a little hacking cough also. Her head aches; and she cannot study. Give her

Scott's Emulsion

The oil will feed her wasting body; the glycerine will soothe her cough, and the hypophosphites will give new power and vigor to her nerves and brain. Never say you "cannot take cod-liver oil" until you have tried Scott's Emulsion. You will be obliged to change your opinion at once. Children especially become very fond of it; and infants do not know when it is added to their food.
